Narnia, carte originale de C.S. Lewis, 1950

👉 Selon C.S. Lewis : « Mon idée était que la carte devait ressembler davantage à une carte médiévale qu'à une carte de l'Ordnance Survey - des montagnes et des châteaux dessinés - peut-être des vents soufflant aux angles - et quelques navires à l'allure héraldique, des baleines et des dauphins dans la mer. »

Prince Caspian,
C.S. Lewis
Artiste : Pauline Baynes
1951
